COLOR PSYCHOLOGY

Using the resource of Envato (2021) to learn more about colour psychology, the following overall colours were selected for this website:

- Blue: This colour and its values act as the main colour of the website being used in the background, heading styles and buttons. Blue was chosen to provide serenity to the user while also expressing the website's reliability.

- Black: This colour is mainly utilised in the navigation bar, with the rest of the website having blue shades which is close to black. This helps to create a dark mode effect that will be easy on the users' eyes whilst expressing space and sophistication.

- White: This colour is only used in text to contrast the dark theme of the website. Thus, it's used to boost the website simplicity, style and sophistication.
